

Ruin for reconstruction, with fantastic views, in upper Valle Gran Rey.

Location: Situated in Lomo del Balo, a hamlet in upper Valle Gran Rey, on a ridge in the middle of the valley, with great views across the valley and down to the sea.

The house was burned down during the Valle Gran Rey fire in 2012. The remaining ruin can be rebuilt. The building has a built-up area of 118 m² on a 167 m² plot. It had three rooms, kitchen and bathroom. Beside the building there is another fire ruin, not for sale at the moment.

Further information: The access is via a footpath about 80 m long, from the side road above the house.
