

New Price !! Canarian country house in La Vizcaina, in upper Valle Gran Rey.

Description of the location:

Casa Flora is located in La Vizcaina, a neighbourhood of Valle Gran Rey, in the upper valley area, in a quiet and beautiful location. A hiking trail leads past the house, up into the mountains to the village of El Cercado. From the car park it is a 120 m walk to the house.

Description of the property:

The house has two bedrooms, a small living room, a kitchen and a bathroom. An interior staircase leads to the roof terrace. There is also a small storage room. The house is built in the traditional style with natural stone walls. The roof is a gable roof covered with tiles. The property is designed in a simple traditional style. It is in need of renovation. We would be glad to help with the organization of renovation and building works.

Surroundings/Property:

Opposite the house, on the other side of the road, there are two small garden plots which also belong to the property.

General information:

Water and electricity supplies are available.
