

Plot near Las Hayas.

Location: Situated in the mountains, near the village of Las Hayas, above Valle Gran Rey and on the edge of the Garajonay Nature Park. A dirt track leads to the property.

Object description: Plot of 4013 m<sup>2</sup> on a hillside, partly terraced. The rest of the plot is covered with small trees and bushes. It is suitable for the agricultural use, perfect for fruit trees or other dry crops. Due to its location, about 900 m above sea level, it receives more rain than down in the valley, making it possible to cultivate grapevines without irrigation.

Details/background: The property is on agricultural land and building permission will not be granted. It can be used for agricultural purposes e.g. for wine and fruit growing or for animal husbandry. There is an old spring on the property, which could be reinstated.
