

Little house with separated natural stone house in Tazo, in the sunny northwest of the island..

Description of the place:

Casa Cirangel is located in Tazo, a not very populated little hamlet in the west of the island, close to Alojera. Tazo stands out for being a quiet location, having always sunny weather and for the openness of the valley.

Description of the property:

The property consists of:

- A house of 63.33 m², built with stone-clay walls and gabled roof. It is divided into a kitchen with attached living room, two bedrooms, a bathroom, a storage room and a terrace with barbecue area.
- A ruin of 45.60 m², located above the main house.

Surroundings / plot:

The plot is surrounding the house. It is on a hillside and full of vegetation.

An unpaved but passable track leads directly to the entrance of the property.

General information:

Tazo is a small, scarcely populated, picturesque hamlet in the northwest of Gomera. It is the perfect place to find peace and recovery, far away from the touristic hustle of the island.

A passable track leads to Tazo, some parts of it are paved.

The closest town is just 15 min away by car. Here we find several restaurants, shops and two beautiful beaches. The closest bigger towns, Vallehermoso and Valle Gran Rey, are 45min away by car.
